LATE FROM THE SOUTH.

From late Southern papers we gather the following interesting details of affairs in

HOW THE VIRGINIANS TRY TO ESCAPE THE

DRAFT. The Richmond Examiner says: "The muster rolls just handed in to the colonels of the 19th and 179th regiments are the most ridiculously curious documents it has ever been our luck to encounter. In their anxiety to get clear of militia duty, hundreds of the men have attached to their names the record of some permanent injury or horrible distemper. The rolls are thus made complete catalogues of all the ills that flesh is heir to. The great number of one-eyed and deaf men, the prevalence of chronic diarrhesa, and rheumatism in all its varieties, is truly astonishing.

Some parties, who, perhaps, could think of no particular affliction, have stated in general and comprehensive terms, that they were "physically disabled" and in "bad health."
One old gentleman, who avowed himself a hypochondriac, actually appended his will and codicil to his signature. Great numbers have signed themselves "exempted by the Governor," and numerous citizens, though only perhaps making a pair of shoes for a clerk in the Treasury Department, have followed their names with the imposing announcement, "employed on Government work."

It is our opinion that this city has already contributed her quota to the army; but we hope these muster-rolls will be published, that the world may know the men who would shirk muster themselver, and only parade (in many inrtances assumed) diseases when their country calls for soldiers.

THE PROPOSED COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE REBEL ARMY.

The Examiner says: We learn that there has been some hesitation in Congress to pass the bill creating the office of commanding general to direct the movements of the war before the President decides on the reorganization of his Cabinet. The bill, in its present shape, gives the appointment of the commanding general to the Executive; and in that quarter it is said to be already a foregone conclusion that General Lee is to have this important post in the Government.

With reference to the delay in the reconstruction of the Cabinet, we may say that it is reported, in well-informed quarters, that nominations have already been sent into the Senate. and that that of Mr. Mallory as Secretary of the Navy, has, by a large vote, been rejected. THE ARREST OF PROMINENT UNION MEN IN RICH. MOND

It has already been announced that the Rev.

Mr Bosserman, pastor of the Universalist church in this city, had been arrested. We propose to give a sketch of the history of this reverend gentleman from the time of his arrival here from the North to his arrest on Tuesday and lodgment in McDaniel's jail.

Mr. Bosserman is a native of Maine; but for several years previous to 1861 he had been liveled in Raltimora, and officiating as a Universal to the co-operation of Messrs. Hotchkiss and Hogan, of New York, in clearing them out of the city. They succeeded in capturing Edwards Saturday night at the Theater, on suspicion of stealing Mr. Duvall's pocket-book. Other persons have notified the officers of their losses at the same place. One gentleman lost $130, another $20, and another $190, all in gold.

Edwards is also suspected of picking Mr. John Pettibone's pocket last Monday, in front of Welseld in Raltimora, and officiating as a Universal to the Cooperation of Messrs. Hotchkiss and Hogan, of New York, in clearing them out of the city. They succeeded in capturing Edwards Saturday night at the Theater, on suspicion of stealing Mr. Duvall's pocket-book. Other persons have notified the officers of their losses at the same place. One gentleman lost $130, another $20, and another $190, all in gold.

Edwards is also suspected of picking Mr. John Pettibone's pocket last Monday, in front of Welseld Mr. P. lost $310 in more, and some ing in Baltimore, and officiating as a Universalist preacher.

After our signal victory of the 21st of July over the foe at Manassas, the President signified, by proclamation, his desire that the whole nation should devote and set aside the fifth day of August as a day of prayer and thanksgiving. Though importuned by his congregation, Mr. Bosserman refused to open his church on this occasion, and, in consequence, a great majority of the members have since that time, refused to attend the church. Latterly, we learn, he has discoursed on Sundays to only forty attendants.

At the Planters' meeting, held at the City Hall, on the 26th of February, Bosserman. accompanied by B. W. Wardwell, the ice-man, was present, and was noticed to take full notes of the proceedings. The same two men attended together the adjourned meeting of the planters at the African Church. On this occasion they took no pains to conceal the contempt and derision in which they held the meeting and its proposed object.

On the last general fast day Mr. Bosserman again refused to open his church, and gave as his reason that Mr. Franklin Stearns had requested him not to open it; and that as Mr. S. paid him more money than all his congregation put together whatever he said should be done. On last Sunday he presched from his desk in church, that " this unholy rebellion should be crushed out."

In view of the course of conduct pursued by this man since the beginning of the war it did not excite surprise that an order was issued for his arrest.

We will now treat of a more recent arrest. Mr. Charles Palmer has before, since, and throughout the war, been known as a loudtalking, violent "Union man," and as such has shall's. rendered himself odious. But it was generally believed that his insignificance and entire lack of influence would protect him, and, in all probability, notwithstanding his noise and talk, he might have escaped arrest, had he not have made himself busy about Mr. Botts and his

We might, if we thought them of sufficient consequence to publish, fill a column with the treasonable speeches and remarks said to have been recently made by Mr. Palmer; but, knowing his style, we feel assured the public will not care to hear his mouthings, The charge against Mr. Palmer is treason

A BLACK "UNION MAN." Allen, slave of Richard Whitfield, was yesterday arrested by Officer Chalkley, of the city police, on the charge of having proclaimed that "Jeff. Davis was a rebel, and that he (Allen) acknowledged no man as his master."
This fellow should be whipped every day until he confesses what white man put these notions In his head .- Richmond Examiner of Thursday.

Corn after Buckwheat.

E. L. Holden describes, in the Country dentleman, the results of two years when he planted corn after buckwheat, and calls upon his brother farmers for a solution of the difficulties encountered. He says:

I planted a piece of corn last spring on land part of which was buckwheat the year before; the remainder sward land that had been mowed but one year; and all treated alike as mearly as possible. A fair coat of manure was meanly of the meast fair of the meat feature of the same of the same of the same and firm of Walter & Ramann. We are propagated to build to order, and keep constantly on hand, all first of the most feature of the same raised the corn was much smaller than on the sward land, not only in the growth of stalk but in the size and number of ears. In fact there was a great many hills on the buckwheat ground that never set an ear, while all on the sward part was well eared and well filled. Now what caused this great difference? The ground was all alike, a sand loam, and was all seeded with clover and timothy with oats, two years before, and that part that had the buckwheat was not mowed at all, but grass

AFTER THE THIEVES .- The fact of the vast number of thieves and pickpockets now in the city, and their frequent successful operations upon the pockets of honest persons, has induced two of our well known Washington detectives, The Examiner of Thursday has the following Messrs. A. R. Allen and C. Kimball, to obtain which Mr. P. lost $310 in money, and some valuable papers. On Sunday they arrested another of the profession, known as "Jimmy Stevens," who is also committed to jail by Justice Donn.

Additional from Europe by the City of Wash-It had been reported that the Sumter had appeared off Hyeres, on the south of France, on the 16th of February.

The patriotic speech of Minister Adams at the American celebration of Washington's birthday at London has been published. Referring to the memory of Washington, he said it was welf for Americans to think on his course at this time. The country was in the midst of a crists long foreseen and feared; but by imitating Washington's great virtues they would conquer and subdue the malign power which bought to rule or ruln. The struggle is fearful, but there is no alternative. An assault upon the government carries with it aggressive principles which, if not defeated, must in the end be fatal to freedom. It involves the acknowledgement of the prescriptive right of some men to rule over their fellows, tive right of some men to rule over their fellows and the government must, therefore, fully re-establish its fundamental doctrine at every hazard. He culogized President Lincoln administration, and expressed his full confidence that he would

to sell, but not to keep time. Why should an American buy a foreign Watch, when he can get a better and cheaper one at home? Why should an American needlessly enrich foreign Watch manufactures at the expense of our own artisans? Why should an American send gold to England and France, our covert but bitter enemies, when gold is so much needed at home? Why should an American buy an imported Watch, which, in nine cases out of ten, will cost more to keep in order for one year, than its original price, and which was never intended to keep time under any circumstances?

Why should Americans not patronize more nerally American manufactures, and thus ema cipate themselves from the thraldom of English capital, French fashions, and Continental gew-ESWE?

The SEA WEED TONIC is a stimulant dis The SEA WEED TONIC is a stimulant distilled esrefully from the sea weed and kelp, which are found in great abundance on the sea shore. The Sea Weed Tonic is a mild, pleasant drink, as pure as the best French brandy, and possesses the peculiar property of enabling the stomach to convert the food into healthy chime, and thus forwarding the process of digestion, without which toe general health and strength of the system cannot be maintained. This wonderful power of the Sea Weed Tonic will account for the rapidity with which most persons gain fish while taking it, and which, unlike other stimulants, does not leave the system prostrated when its use has been abandoned, as it is distilled from sea weed after the same manner as Jamaica Spirits is from the sugar cane, it is, therefore, entirely harmless, and free from the injurious properties of corn whisky or alcohol, which form the basis of almost every bitters.

The directions are to take from a half to a wine glass full immediately after each meal, and for the patient to find out what agrees with the stomach, and take what he eats well masticated.
